MIGHT BE BETTER EMPLOYED SOMETHING LIKE REAL WAR

Suggestion That Large Fund Be South American Revolutions Are Not Raised by Sale of London's Disused Churches. All of the Comic Opera Variety.

A century ago there were 100 churches within "the square mile" of London city. Now there are little more than half that number. It has been suggested that 30 of these should be demolished and the funds thus liberated employed in church work elsewhere. The site of All Hallows, in Lombard street, is said to be worth £800,000, while that of St. Michael's, Cornhill, is valued at no less than three-quarters of a million sterling. St. Peter's, Cornhill, stands on equally valuable ground. The aggregate site-values of the 30 churches which it is proposed should be incorporated with other parishes is put down at three and a half millions.

BLIND UNIVERSITY STUDENT.

Cornell university has for the first time in its history a blind student, William H. Moore of Brooklyn. He has entered as a freshman in the college of arts and sciences, and hopes to be able to take the degree of bachelor of arts. Moore for some time was a student at the New York Institute for the Blind. He has engaged a reader who will assist him in his studies. His work will be carried on with the aid of raised type. He says that after he has been at college a short time and gets acquainted with the buildings and the campus he will have no trouble in finding his way wherever he wants to go.

ON THE ROOF GARDEN.

She—Well, how goes the battle?
He—How did you know I was married?

GREAT LOSS OF LABOR.

Probably no reader has the least idea what is the total amount of imprisonment to which offenders in this country are sentenced every year. The figures are remarkable. In round numbers 950 people receive sentences of 4,200 years' penal servitude and 195,000 people receive sentences of 16,600 years' imprisonment. That is a total of 20,800 years. What a dreadful loss this is to the country! Not only have all these people to be fed, clothed, housed, guarded, but they are practically idle—or, at least, their work is of little value. The great majority of them are in the prime of working life, aged from 20 to 60.—London Answers.

EXTRA PRECAUTION.

"You do a great deal of personal correspondence?" ventured the interviewer.
"I do, indeed," responded the head official of the gigantic corporation.
"And do you add 'R. S. V. P.' beneath your personal letters?"
"Oh, no; I add 'P. B. R. A.'"
"And what does that mean?"
"Why, 'Please Burn Right Away.'"

NOT TOPHEAVY.

Mario—I think Chollie is a delightful dancer; he's so light on his feet.
Lillian—When you're better acquainted with Chollie you'll discover that he's light at both ends!—Town and Country.

HIS OWN REMEDY.

Boreleigh—Yes, Miss Doris, I suffer dreadfully from insomnia, y' know.
Miss Doris (suppressing a yawn)—Did you ever try talking to yourself, Mr. Boreleigh?

REASONABLE ENOUGH.

"What's your objection to the farm, mister?"
"The land appears to be sunken."
"But that's owing to the heavy crops."

South American revolutions are not really quite so humorous as the stories they tell of them in American magazines.

We sauntered up the shady side of a noisy street with a toothless, jet-black Trinidad negro for guide, until we turned into a delicious open square, shaded with heavy trees garnished with orchids, and there found the rest of the army. Up to that instant, and although we knew how serious had been the struggle on the Orinoco, we had spoken of the revolution in the jesting tone familiar to American comic papers. But never again! There were some hundreds of men and many women stretched out in this little park. All the men were ill, most were wounded. Fine bronzed peons, with horrible, festering holes in legs or arms, unbanded, often, I fear, untreated; skeletons, yellower than nature, and shaking with fever; every form of sickness, round and misery was in that mock hospital. A veteran, perhaps, would have looked pityingly and passed on, but to us, softlings of a long peace, it was the first realization of war. I shall not forget one gigantic half-breed Indian, his head on the breast of a young and really beautiful Indian girl, his useless leg writhing on the grass; and still less a poor devil stretched on the hot, hard pavement (for misery was not all in the park), covered with a poncho, and breathing his last of fever.—Atlantic.

HEIGHT AND TEMPERATURE.

Balloonists and mountain climbers have long known that the temperature of the air falls as the altitude increases. It has recently been discovered that this decrease in temperature has its limits. "Sounding" balloons, freighted with automatic recording instruments, have been sent to heights far exceeding those which any balloonist can hope to reach. The records obtained show that at a height of about eight miles the thermometer ceases to fall, and may even rise. The distinguished French meteorologist Tisserand de Bort claims also to have discovered that at a certain level the air above the poles is warmer than that above the equator, and anomaly which must be more fully demonstrated than is now possible before it can be accepted.

LOOTED DURING FIRE.

While a fire was raging at a large spinning and weaving mill in Lisbon, and several adjacent shops, including a jeweler's, a band of thieves mixed among the crowd of spectators. They threw stones at the firemen, but the latter turned their hoses upon the crowd. This so exasperated the deluged spectators that they attacked the firemen, and a terrific fight ensued. The military had to be called out to restore order. During the confusion the thieves seized the opportunity to ransack the shops, carrying away everything of value upon which they could lay their hands.

BANISHING TEMPER.

"I wonder sometimes if good temper might not be taught. In business we use no harsh language, say no unkind things to one another. The shopkeeper, leaning across the counter, is all smiles and affability—he might put up his shutters were he otherwise. Hasty tempers are banished from the city. Can we not see that it is just as much to our interest to banish them from everywhere?"—Jerome K. Jerome.

A CORRECTION.

"Did you see the Alhambra while you were in Spain?"
"Friend," answered Mr. Cumrox in a superior tone, "you are mixed in your geography. No, I did not visit the Alhambra. But while in London I took in the Empire and the Tivoli."

AS FAR AS HE GOT.

"Were you upheld in your business politics by the recent election?"
"No," answered Mr. Dustin Stax; "I wasn't upheld by the election, but I was upheld by a campaign collector."

SHOULD STAY DOWN.

"You Americans shouldn't have much trouble keeping your meals on sea voyages," observed the foreigner.
"Why not?"
"Because you bolt them down."
